It is with great excitement that we announce that tickets for our much anticipated show 'Les Miserables Schools Edition' are now on sale. This is without doubt the most ambitious production the Performing Arts Department has embarked upon in recent years and we feel incredibly proud of the outstanding commitment and talent shown by our young actors, singers and musicians.

We would like to share Victor Hugo's epic story of love, greed and heroism, set amidst the backdrop of the French Revolution, with our school community. With one of the most evocative and moving scores ever written, it looks set to be a truly memorable event which follows the protagonist Jean Valjean and his nemesis Javert, through the streets of Paris, to the docks, the barricades and the Inn owned by the infamous Thenardiens.

Yours faithfully
