

Lockdown has increased the risk of sexual abuse for some children, both online and offline. Everyone needs to play their part in keep children safe during lockdown and beyond.

A new confidential Stop It Now! helpline is available to help prevent these crimes. This has been created in partnership with the Police to warn of the dangers and point people towards help and support. Anyone with concerns about child sexual abuse, including parents and professionals – call 0808 1000 900 (9am-9pm Monday-Thursday, 9am-5pm Friday).

Stop It Now!
UK & IRELAND

Helping prevent child sexual abuse

Call 0808 1000 900
or visit stopitnow.org.uk

The Lucy Faithfull Foundation runs the anonymous Stop It Now! helpline for anyone with concerns about child sexual abuse

Parents Protect! website has plenty of information and resources on how to keep children safe from sexual abuse. We've also put together a list of useful resources that can help you bring up issues such as how to be safe online and consent.