Trip to Parliament

On 13th September we will be taking 33 Year 13 students to Parliament for the day. The trip will leave on the train in the morning to London and return after the workshop finishes at 17:10. We will therefore return in the evening of 13th September. Students will likely need to be picked up from a central train station (details to be confirmed).

If you would like to attend please click this link to sign up: <https://forms.office.com/e/Y3f0i9Eqyn>

The trip will take the form as a workshop and tour of Parliament.

The workshop, run by the Parliamentary education team will consider the following:

How does UK Parliament turn an idea into a law? Students will experience the law-making process. This highly interactive workshop takes the class through the five stages of a bill, encouraging diverse points of view in an active debate through role play. Focusing on a topic of their choice, students will take the bill through the House of Commons and The House of Lords. They will explore the role of Government and Parliament in the law-making process. They will examine types of bills, policy creation, public consultation and various methods of scrutiny of legislation by Parliament. Students will feel empowered to influence those decisions that affect their lives and to be active citizens in our thriving democracy.

The cost of the trip is being calculated and will be confirmed shortly. If you are worried about money but would like to attend please speak with Miss J Dixon.
