NEWS

Fashion show success

A huge thank you and well done to all students involved in our Fashion Show on Thursday 20th June. "It was an amazing night", said Miss Simms.

From the designers and their models to the Year 12 Catering Students who created the delicious canapés on offer, they all did a fantastic job and made the evening so special.

Well done all. This was a great celebration for our BTEC Fashion students after all their hard work.

Horticulture Apprenticeships

Closing date: Wednesday 31st July

Start date: September 2024

High Legh-based Beechwood Industries has launched its 2024 Apprenticeship programme and is looking for 2–4 Apprentices. The Horticulture apprenticeship will be offered the chance to ‘earn while you learn’ with a weekly salary of £256.

- You will gain a nationally recognised qualification.
- You’ll gain hands-on training and real working life experience.
- You won’t build up any student finance debts.
- You can start a successful career in the landscaping and horticulture industry.

Positions are being offered in conjunction with Reaseheath College where the Apprentices will attend 1 day per week in term time to study for a Level 2 in Horticulture and Landscape Operative standard. Beechwood’s Director, Adam Halford, is a former Reaseheath student himself and knows first-hand the quality of teaching. Beechwood Industries are a multi-disciplined, young and rapidly expanding company who appreciate the value of their employees. They understand that creating a positive and enjoyable working environment directly contributes to the level of service they provide to their clients. Their Apprenticeship scheme has been developed with these principles in mind. The weekly salary on offer is higher than the apprentice minimum wage in recognition of the contribution that the apprentices will make to the business.

To apply, please register your interest, explaining why you are keen, and include any other relevant documentation (such as a CV) to enquiries@ beechwoodindustries.co.uk. For more information, please call 01925 860544.
